Current Life Outlook

From Rainy Bali

May tour of the UK

Based in BaliNow until mid-May*

Greetings from Bali where we are amidst rainy season. There is more rain this year than i've experienced since moving here over 11 years ago. Though it feels good to be here. I am on my way out of some long cycles. Much is moving in the background of my life, and i'm stepping into a new phase of sorts.

I have already become quite busy all of a sudden. Which often happens once I land on this vibrant island of volcanic energies and vortex type powers calling so many here at this time. I have offerings that you can come to if you are here.

I am now open for private sessions.

Both Astrology or Breathwork. Both online or in-person.

Please reach out to book in.

Otherwise here are just some of the events I have planned:

Full Moon in Leo

All Planets Direct and Visible

The Full Moon on Thursday February 12, 2025 is exact at 13:53 PM UTC

Full Moon in Leo

The Sun in Aquarius is encouraging us all to reach a higher perspective and discover uncovered potential, both of personal concepts and hive mind. Collective consciousness is constantly expanding, growing, changing, and reforming. If it was up to Aquarius, it would always be a constant elevation and continued growth beyond what was before.

The Full Moon brings the opposite, yet resonant polarity. The Moon reaching the opposite end of the sky becomes a fullness that not only accents the cycle of the Sun, though brings out the contrary lunar lessons.

Leo is radiant individualism, the glowing personal powers and heart expanded state. Through the nature of simply being seen, it can sometimes lead one to the empowerment of taking center stage in spontaneous moments.

Though many of us get stuck in holding back our potential... Sound familiar?

This Full Moon we are encouraged to consider not only "What am I waiting for? though rather "Why have I been holding back". Hopefully we can each realize the reasons are only our individual patterns such as fear, anxiety, and reluctance. We get scared of growth, we get anxious of being seen, and reluctant to move forward. This might even seem simple to see, though perhaps challenging to many to actually get past.

The antidote of anxiety is action.

Step on center stage of your life. Instead of getting wrapped up in the fear, or frozen from the anxiousness, just show up and shine bright. Be big, take up space and turn that holding back energy into actioned power. As soon as you simply try, all that crippling anxiety might just turn all the way around into creativity and become exactly what was feared.

Embrace your magnificence.

We are all meant to shine. As you do, it gives permission for all around you to. So collectively we shine because of the inspiration of people like you.

February 15

Mercury moves into the sign of Pisces. The planet of thoughts and communication, having just past the Sun on the external side from our view, moves into the next sign of softness, compassion, and higher love. Cazimi is what its called when a planet is conjunct the Sun. In this case, the Mercury cycle is now coming out of the external underworld and moves directly into a new energy. Like a psychopomp guiding lost souls into a new energy. A death and rebirth, going into the Sun's light one way, and out from a totally different sign. Pisces is the new expression of the collective mind in the new Mercury cycle.

February 18

The Sun follows closely behind Mercury, and moves into the next seasonal sign of Pisces. The collective expression of personality is now shining in the sign that urges deep emotional capacity, connection to higher guidance, and universal love. Some things to feel into and consider for this month that leads us towards the Spring equinox in mid March.

February 19

The planet of the sacred feminine, Venus is closest to the Sun in it's current cycle today. This is called perihelion. It's also coming close to the end of a year and a half cycle it's been in. Soon after, Venus will come into the glare of the Sun's light and begin a new cycle when it reaches the other side and comes into the morning sky stage. This happens in May.

February 24

Mars the planet of the sacred masculine, having recently began a new more than 2-year cycle, started this in a backwards, or slowed down, called retrograde motion. Today it begins phase 1 of it's overall journey as it begins to move forward again in a direct motion. Today is that stationary point of moving forward again.

Let the hero tales begin! The masculine planet carries the energy of Cancer, where it has been for many months onward on it's voyage. Perhaps learning all a person is to know about the masculine version of Cancer.

February 25

The planet of cognition and perception finds it's way through the thought process of the Pisces sign, and into direct alignment with Saturn, the planet of structure, form, and stability. Making a pit stop of learning, or a check-in to see what's real. Too much Pisces could be a spacey, all up and out type of mind and Saturn's reality check can ground this. Or it could block one from connecting with something greater than ourselves. This conjunction could be a restriction in that respect. This is a personal experience.

February 25 - March 1

The grand alignment though overhyped as extremely rare, is not so much. However, it is very

The grand alignment, though overtyped as extremely rare, is not so much. However, it is very cool that so many planets will indeed be visible all at once in the sky. Mostly on or around February 28 when the New Moon begins to become visible, so too will Mercury (under clear evening skies). Even brighter you can see Venus, and then Jupiter. Though you will need a telescope to see Neptune and Uranus, they will be close by with Mars visible to the naked eye on the other end of the Sky. These are all the possible visible planets plus the main out of site planets all available in the nights sky at once. Very cool indeed! Definitely try and make time after sunset to experience this and see what transmissions come through for you.

With that, another semi-rare occurrence is that all these planets mentioned will be moving in direct motion from when Mars stations direct on February 25 until when Venus stations retrograde on March 1. During this time, it's all systems go and collective humanity is experiencing a full speed ahead opportunity.

Let's go!

Inspiring conversations feature some of the incredible and diverse people associated with the Turning of The Ages Mystery School. Hosted by TOTAMS Foundationally Certified Astrologer, Team & Media Maven Naraya Naserian.

I was welcomed for an online interview all the way from from Africa. I shared about my path to Shamanic Astrology and Breathwork and the many synchronicities that flowed during my Venus and Mars return when first moving to Bali. We also spoke of Neptune cycles and the upcoming journey to Scotland this June.

It was a pleasure to chat with Naraya and I was honored to be highlighted by the school.

Shamanic Healing Initiatory Process

Levi will be returning to Bali for another epic
Shamanic Breathwork experience at a great remote location
April 14-27, 2025

The Time is Now to Heal and Transform

CLICK HERE

Join us in beautiful Bali for a transformational journey through the ceremony of Shamanic Breathwork - a powerful healing process that inspires individuals to reconnect with their own inner healer. It's a journey taken by connecting the breath, chakra-attuned music, focused bodywork, art, and group sharing to leave you empowered with the magic of who you truly are. Through Shamanic Breathwork, old wounds and dysfunctional patterns are released and transformed, bringing wholeness and healing back into your life, your loved ones, and the world around you.

This 14-day immersion will take you through the Shamanic Healing Initiatory Process (SHIP). The program is a series of five transformative initiations based on the 5 Elements. This highly experiential process taps into your inner self, releasing blocks to higher love and wisdom. As you re-integrate through embodiment of the 5 Elements, you will be set free to stand in the truth of your authentic being and walk a path with heart. You will journey beyond the limitations of ego identity and shape-shift into your sacred soul purpose.

Are you ready to step onto the shamanic path of transformation?
Are you ready to journey into personal healing through the power of the breath?
Are you ready to change your life in magical place brimming with earth energy?

Gather for a Rare Lunar
Alignment

Scotland, June 2025

Callanish Sacred Stones

A Mystical Adventure to the Sacred Standing Stones in Scotland

I have organized a journey to the sacred site known as Callainsh on the Isle of Lewis in the Outer Hebrides. I'd love for you to join me for a rare lunar alignment that only happens every 18-19 years! We will be able to witness this alignment inside some powerful stone circles that were put there by the ancients especially for this rare moon alignment. Join us for our last chance to see for another 18 + years. This will be very special.

I'm honored to bring a small group to this sacred place at a special time.

Spaces are limited!
